GENERAL BIO

Leon Budrow is a Nationally Touring Recording Artist, Singer and Song-Writer residing in Berks County, Pennsylvania. Leon's versatile sound allows him to flow between the pop, hip-hop and pop country genres, establishing himself as a hit amongst many different music genre fans. Leon Budrow has toured the country as Direct Support for pop star Aaron Carter as well as many other major artists - including Ryan Cabrera, O- Town, Drake Bell, Chris Webby, Chase Wright and Ginuwine. Showcasing a dynamic performance history, Budrow thrives in the spotlight. With over 40 professional music performances (and counting) under his belt, Budrow has performed live throughout the country in 25 venues, 23 cities and 15 states, including The World Famous Whisky a Go Go in West Hollywood, California.

More than just a singer and rapper, Leon Budrow has made a name for himself in the entertainment industry as a SAG Credited & Registered Professional Actor (IMBD), Published Model, Hunk-O-Mania Magic Mike Dancer and Fitness Enthusiast.

A true performer - Budrow hosts and MC's the Philadelphia Hunk-O-Mania Male Revue as Philadelphia's Hunk-O-Mania Magic Mike. Bringing his skill set to multiple cities throughout the company, Budrow has performed for women all over the country, including the incredible sold out theatre crowds of highly acclaimed venues such as The Fillmore, Punchline The Historic Apollo Theater in New York, The Kimmel Cultural Campus Miller Theater (formerly The Merriam Theater) and The Beacon Theater as part of the Girls Gotta Eat live comedy tour.

MUSIC BIO

As an athlete, 'Magic Mike' dancer, model, and former men's physique fitness competitor, Leon brings an element of Clean-Cut All-American Health & Fitness to his musical image. With Influences of pop, hip-hop, edm, and country, Leon looks to bridge genres to bring a unique and fresh element to his sound. Leon's versatility has allowed him to perform alongside many different genres of artists and appeal to multiple music fan bases. A unique talent, Budrow credits artists such as Justin Bieber, G-Eazy, The Backstreet Boys, LANY, Cole Swindell and Luke Bryan as notable influences to his sound and style.

Since the release of his debut hip-hop EP "Dreamin" in February 2018, Budrow has released a myriad of singles and projects, incorporating many styles to his arsenal. Budrow's debut pop album "Iridium" blends a unique mix of pop and RnB vibes, with tracks such as I Can't Hide, Best Friend, Undivided Attention, and Rager.

Budrow's debut pop country album "Graffiti Backroads" is a hit amongst his fans, featuring some of his most popular songs such as Hoodie, The Start, This Much is True and My Best Tonight.

Always working and seeking to grow and develop as an artist, Budrow has already begun production on multiple new projects, including his highly anticipated follow up pop album "Moments" as well as other tentatively titled projects. As a song writer, Budrow's music authentically comes from the heart, allowing him to produce lyrics and melodies that truly connect with his audience on all emotional levels.

Iridium - Budrow's debut pop album Iridium features a blend of pop and hip hop tracks, including his hit song Rager, a hard hitting club banger inspired by wild party experiences. Another popular track off the record is I Can't Hide, a smooth RnB record, along with other notable pop tracks including Best Friend, Undivided Attention, Shallow, Think About You, But I Like That, and Wonder. Rounding out the project Budrow showcases his versatility with more hip hop records including Sinking and Drip Drip Strip.

Graffiti Backroads - Budrow's debut pop country album Graffiti Backroads is a big hit amongst Budrow's fan base, featuring his incredibly emotional single More Than You'll Know, along with the romantic, sexy country vibes of My Best Tonight. Other notable tracks on the project include the ever so relatable single Hoodie, heart broken tracks such as Open Book, and love songs such as The Start and the pop country ballad This Much is True.

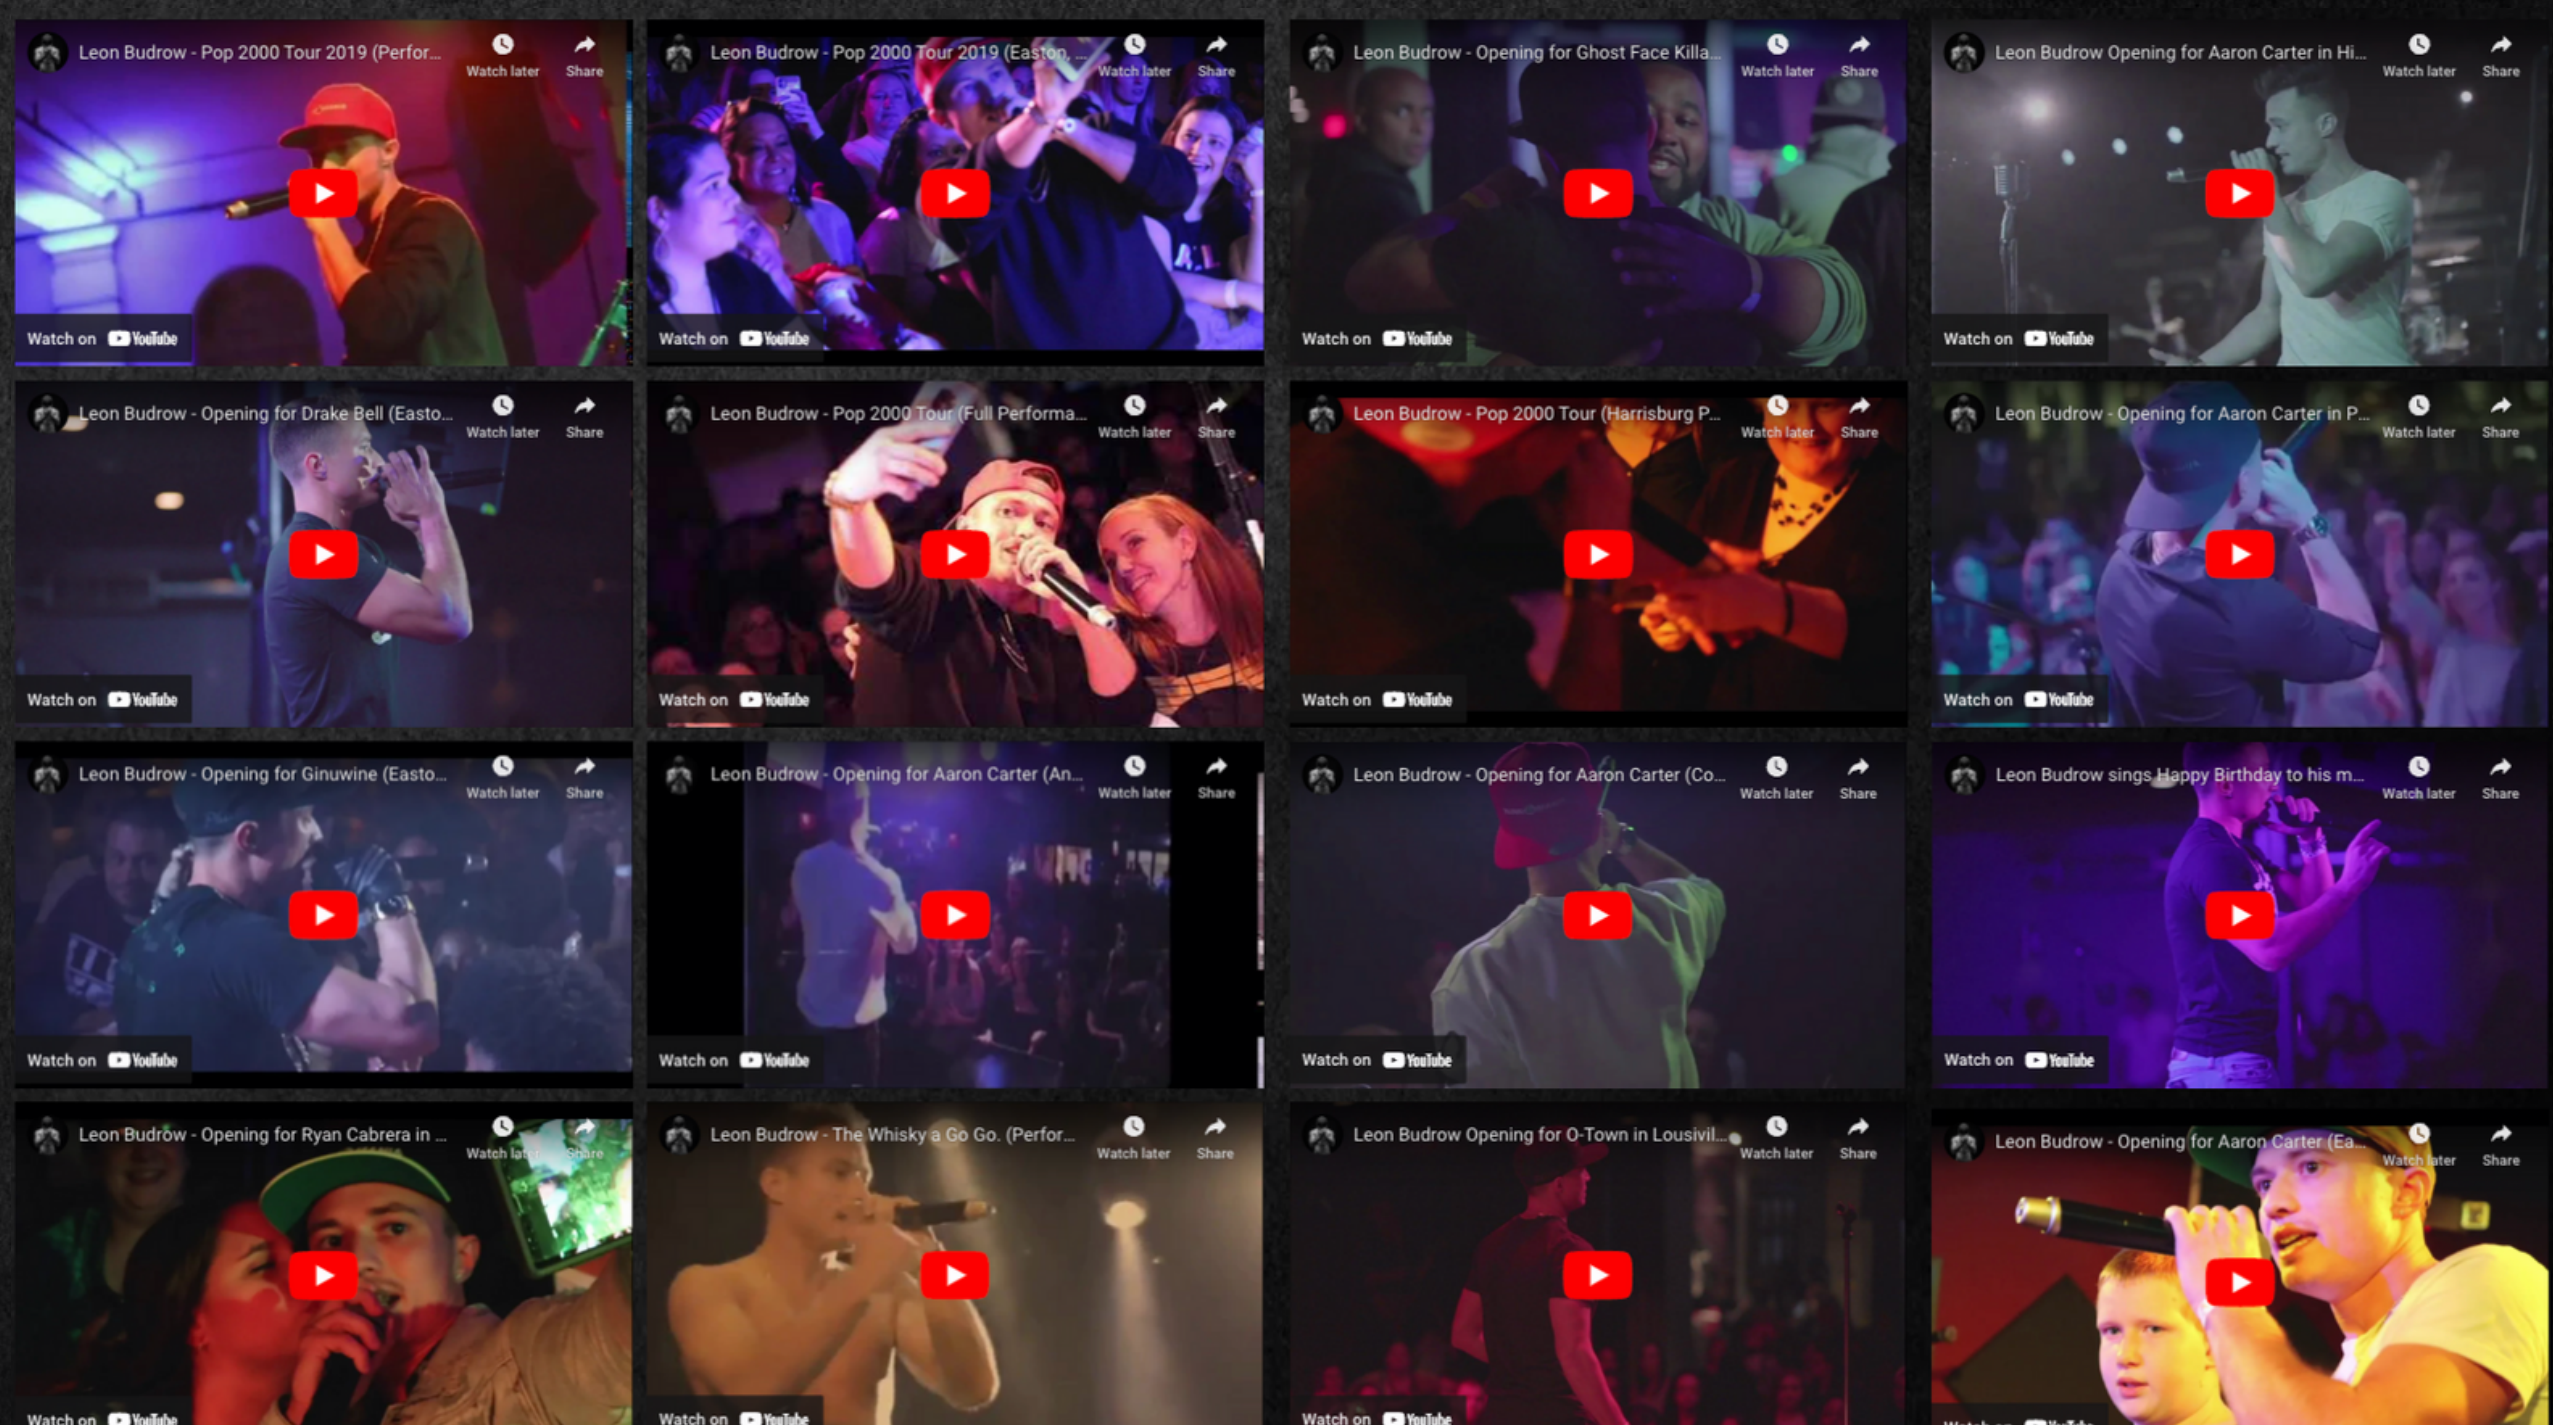

Moments - Budrow's upcoming pop album Moments, presents more pop vibes with tracks such as If I Ain't Got You, Breakdown, Hopeful, Spinnin Round, Want You Back ad Missing Directions. Layering in more RnB vibes, the project includes tracks such as Dangerous and Will We Drown.

Budrow's newest hip-hop record Hailey Bieber is a hit amongst his hip-hop fans, and is slated to be a single on an upcoming project*. Budrow has also released a couple original pop Christmas songs, and has gained fame for his powerful and uplifting 2020 Coronavirus Pandemic Graduation Record Time of Our Life, a track Leon recording for all of the 2020 high school graduates that were impacted by the pandemic. Budrow loves to stay creative, and is always looking begin new projects of all genres and styles.

A confident, charismatic and powerfully entertaining performer, Leon's versatility has allowed him to perform alongside many artists. Leon has toured the country as Direct Support for pop artists such as Aaron Carter, O-Town, Ryan Cabrera and Drake Bell, rappers such as Chris Webby, Ekoh, Ginuwine and Ghost Face Killah of Wu-Tang Clan, and Country artists such as Chase Wright and Chris Bandi.
